

- Do I have a problem with theft or think people may be shoplifting
- Do I find empty packaging or packing materials around the store?
- Do I find a lot of items in the wrong places or hidden behind other items?
- Do I find certain items run out faster than other items but don't notice them being bought?
- Do I notice many people wearing layered clothing, oversized coats, and carrying bags?
- Does my employees take out trash all day long, do they break down the boxes.
- Do my cashiers give out receipts?
- Do I have many voided sales or returns/ refunds?
- Do I find myself purchasing more supplies than usual?

Do my employees act differently when I am not present to supervise them?

- Do my employees up sell my product offerings?
- What is their lack of productivity costing my business?
- How can I increase productivity?
- How can I ensure my employees are on time for work and leave on time?
- Would your business benefit from enhanced employee relationships?
- Would customers benefit from employees who know they are being observed?

Would everyone all act differently if they knew they were being observed?

- Are there areas where they should or shouldn't be at?
- What can be learned from the actions of those parties when I am not physically present?
- If someone (employee, contractor, vendor, or customer) got injured on property, can I verify it or investigate the occurrence?

What if property was missing or vandalism occurred?

What do I do currently to prohibit negative behavior, and promote positive behavior?

How do I make people accountable for their actions?

How do I currently enforce policies and procedures?

If I had all this information would it have an effect on my bottom line?